

NAME OF PLACE

Explain here why your customer would want to visit this place.

1 . Example: Come visit The Land of the Dead. Greeks and goddesses alike are just dying to get in!

2 . Another reason here

3 . Another reason here

DRAWING

Draw a picture of what your customer may expect to see at this place.

LIST FAMOUS PEOPLE WHO HAVE BEEN TO YOUR PLACE

The mystic and the arrogant have graced our living quarters. Augustus and Caesar just visited last weekend and they said, "This place rocks!"

Marcus Antonius raves, "The peaceful serenity is almost overwhelming!"

EXPLAIN WHAT CRITICS ARE SAYING ABOUT THIS PLACE

"I felt like I had died and gone to Hades! If you are looking for the loom of darkness and the sudden escape from all living forces, then you will love this place!"

-Zack Teiresias of the Greek Globe

Place another critique here.

-Name of person giving critique

Place another critique here.

-Name of person giving critique

IN (NAME OF PLACE) YOU WILL ENJOY:

- Bullet point your ideas here
- For example:
- Endless hours shade
- Deathly silence

DRAWING

Draw a picture here.

AN UNSOLICITED TESTAMONIAL FROM ONE OF OUR SATISFIED VISITORS:

List the testimony of a satisfied customer here.

WHAT TO EXPECT

---

Explain what your client can expect from a visit to your place. This should also include an additional advertisement in order to persuade your client to visit your place.

DRAWING

---

Draw a picture here.

THIS IS YOUR BACK PAGE

---

ONE-LINE SLOGAN

---

Place a one-sentence or one-line slogan to finally entice your customer into visiting your place.

This page should have the following:

- A picture
- A jingle, quote, or saying that advertises the place
- The name of your company

Rubric for Travel Brochure

---

This page should have the following:

- A picture of the place
- The name of the place
- A jingle, quote, or saying that advertises the place

You may not use The Land of Lotus Eaters for your travel brochure.